Call to Activism

Greetings!

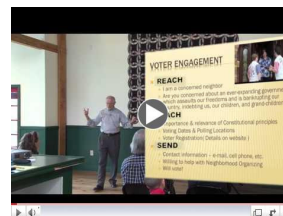

The America we have known and grown up in is literally being transformed by Progressives into a nation more akin to socialist countries throughout the world. This transformation is being achieved through fiscal policy, thus avoiding a direct assault on the Constitution. To assure that our children and grandchildren will experience American Exceptionalism, we must act now! Otherwise, similar to the collapse of the Roman Empire, we will be witness to the start of the collapse of the United States and its exceptional economy and society.

My Story

My parents came to the United States from Germany with three sons in 1961 in pursuit of the American Dream. They recognized that only in the United States could their three sons study hard, work hard, take risks, and pursue unlimited opportunities in an effort to realize their potential. My parents did this at great personal risk, since they did not speak English, were unfamiliar with the culture, and had no assurances of economic success. My father, at times, worked two or three jobs as a cabinetmaker to support our family, buy a house, and pay college expenses. In contrast, in socialist Germany at the time, none of us could have gone to college since high tuition requirements limited college only to the wealthy elite. Additionally, government bureaucrats would have prevented us from pursuing many of our career choices based on rules and regulations. My brothers and I owe much to our parents and to American Exceptionalism. With an equal opportunity for all, (click here to continue)

Our Story

Similarly, most of us are either immigrants or descendants of immigrants who came to the United States with identical aspirations. Our forefathers took similar personal risks to assure that their children would have a shot at the American Dream. These parents recognized that only in the United States was it possible for individuals to appropriately benefit from their studies, hard work, and a willingness to take risks. They also recognized that the freedom to achieve was only one of the many individual freedoms, such as freedom-of-religion, afforded to citizens of the United States. In exchange for these benefits, a diverse group of immigrants from throughout the world learned English and melded into a society-at-large, which became known as the "Melting Pot". Many of the countries they left behind were either dictatorial, socialist, or communist. Once in the United States, these immigrants or, descendants thereof, pursued economic opportunities and (click here to continue)

Transformational Threat

Now we are faced by a threat from Progressives who intend to transform the United States from its status of American Exceptionalism, with its focus on equal opportunities, to one more akin to socialism, with its focus on equal outcomes. They are attempting to accomplish this with unprecedented federal spending and debt creation in support of an ever-expanding dependency class supported by ever-increased taxation on the productive elements of society. Result - a redistribution of wealth! Even worse, Progressive elites are dividing those who are economically dependent on them into individual factions, each of which is fighting for their piece of the economic pie. This balkanization of Americans assures Progressive elites that no one group is large enough to overthrow them. This is very much counter to the historical character of the United States being a "Melting Pot".

Once this transformation is achieved, it will be nearly impossible to reverse since many constituents will have lost their motivation, self-esteem, willingness to assume risk, and skills to individually succeed. Instead, they will have adopted a mind-set that "society owes them" a decent standard of life which includes housing, transportation, food, cell phones, flat-screen TVs, cable access, and computers with internet access. This transformation is willfully aided by the

About

"A democracy will continue to exist up until the time that voters discover that they can vote themselves generous gifts from the public treasury. From that moment on, the majority always votes for the candidates who promise the most benefits from the public treasury, with the result that every democracy will finally collapse due to loose fiscal policy, which is always followed by a dictatorship." - Alexander Fraser Tyler's Cycle of Democracy

"Do not blame Caesar, blame the people of Rome who have so enthusiastically acclaimed and adored him and rejoiced in their loss of freedom and danced in his path and given him triumphal processions. Blame the people who hail him when he speaks in the Forum of the new wonderful good society which shall now be Rome's, interpreted to mean more money, more ease, more security, and more living fatly at the expense of the industrious." - Marcus Tullius Cicero, Roman philosopher and statesman (106-43 BC)

Actions Each of Us Can Pursue

Efforts to prevent this transformation of the United States can no longer be limited to merely a focus on winning elections and issues, but must include ongoing actions by each of us to deal with the Progressive media, educational institutions, and "Social Justice" religions. While these elite institutions may control the current national narrative, they do not represent most Americans' values and principles. Aware of this, Progressives focus on advancing their agenda by relying on misinformed voters aided by their media, education, and "Social Justice" religions' propaganda narrative, as well as low-information voters. To counter this, each of us who believes in American Exceptionalism must become engaged in this fight to engage the hearts and minds of our fellow citizens or resign ourselves to a transformed United States. Time is of the essence!

While most of our site is focused on proven, effective Neighborhood Organizing mechanics for winning elections, we have created a new Activism section that focuses on actions that must be pursued by freedom-loving Americans at all times. We have done much research and read numerous books to prepare the sub-tabs under the Activism section. This includes reverse engineering methodologies that have allowed the Progressive's to succeed with only about twenty percent of the population in support of their agenda. Links to detailed descriptions for each of the actions are provided below.

It is important to recognize that we, the "Silent-Majority", have many more people and can reverse the Progressive's advance with our sheer numbers. Furthermore, our values and principles are founded in FAIRNESS and in TRUTH! But, to win requires that all of us engage in this battle!

"However [political parties] may now and then answer popular ends, they are likely in the course of time and things, to become potent engines, by which cunning, ambitious, and unprincipled men will be enabled to subvert the power of the people and to usurp for themselves the reins of government, destroying afterwards the very engines which have lifted them to unjust dominion." -
